South 24 Pgs, West Bengal

A Brief History of the Department

JibantalaRokeyaMahavidyalaya started its journey from the academic session 2007-2008. Calcutta University approved for teaching students in general department in five subjects – Bengali, English, History, Political Science and Philosophy. In the academic year 2009-2010, Calcutta University allowed admission of students for Bengali Honors only in 20 seats. There are 02 government sanctioned teacher posts for the Bengali department of the college. Most of the time the teaching of Bengali department has progressed with only one full time teacher and part time teachers. Since the college is located in the remote villages of the Sundarbans region, the communication system was once poor. Almost all the people of this region are agriculturists, poverty is their constant companion. In most cases, students' dreams of higher education were not fulfilled. There was no opportunity for higher education. This college has freed the students of this area from that crisis.

The vast area surrounding the college is Minority dominated. 70% people are still illiterate. Everyone's mother tongue is Bengali. Therefore, the interest in studying Bengali subject is very high in higher education. At present there are 350 seats in Bengali general course and 90 seats in honors course. Many students of Bangla Honors have studied, many have completed higher education, some have entered working life. At present there are 02 full time Assistant Professors in the Bengali department. Dr. Ramkrishna Mandal and Dr. Chiranjib Mukherjee are full-time Assistant Professors and SabanaMollah is a SACT. Students are the citizens of tomorrow - hence the teachers of this department impart good education and guidance through friendly relationship with them. They make students dream of higher education and becoming real people.

Covid - 19 has affected the entire world in many ways. A large section of the student community has been cut off from the mainstream of education due to the impact of this disease. The number of students admitted in Bengali honors department is less than before. As the Principal of the college and the departmental teacher, we have been encouraging the students of the area to enroll in the college and complete their higher education through various promotional programs. As per NEP-2020 of Government of India, currently our college is also a partner of New Education System. The teachers of the Bengali department are constantly informing the students about the benefits of this new teaching method. They believe that through this new method of education holistic and comprehensive development of students is possible.

34. SWOC Analysis of the Department:

➤ Strength:

- a) Responsible, Young, Energetic, Experienced and Highly Qualified faculty members.
- b) Increasing student's strength in General/ Hons Course.
- c) Faculties are aware and paid special attention to those students who are weak in learning. Remedial Class, Tutorial are the measures taken by the teachers in each and every Academic Session.
- d) Besides fixed curriculum the students are encouraged to participate various Seminars, Extension/Outreach programme, Special Invited Lectures and Add-On Courses etc.

➤ Weakness:

- i. Faculty strength is not sufficient.
- ii. ICT enable class room for the Department is not available.
- iii. Limited Departmental resources for faculty and students.
- iv. Very poor Central Library
- v. Poor Socio-economic states of the students.
- vi. Most of the students are 1st generation learner.
- vii. Lack of sufficient class room for teaching.
- viii. Teacher-Students ratio is very high.
- ix. Books and research Journals are insufficient for promotion of research work.

➤ Opportunity:

1. Confidence building through Seminars, lecture and group discussion and personality development through participation of various cultural activities i.e. birthday celebration of Rabindranath Tagore, Vidyasagar, Gandhiji, Netaji, Observation of 15th August, 26th January, Bhasa Dibosh etc.
2. Students are motivated and guided by the faculty members for appearing in competitive exam like NET, SET and other career prospect.
3. Department assigns project work for students to showcase their talent and potentials.

➤ Challenges:

- a) Very high numbers of students, especially at the General level makes it difficult to meet the diverse ability and needs of the students.
- b) Rising competitive edge amongst the students.
- c) To make as an interesting/potential subject among the local students.
- d) Career oriented syllabus as a suggestive to the BOS members & selectors.
- e) To motivate students, use digital platform for collecting information related to local, National and International issues. Free access to internet for students.

➤ Future plans of the Department:

1. To organize more State, National and International level Seminars/Webinar etc.

2. To create Departmental Seminar Library for Students and faculty members.
