Dated: 03/08/2022(Wednesday)

Jointly Organized by Department of Political Science in Collaboration with IQAC, Jibantala Rokeya Mahavidyalaya.

Topic: Drug Abuse in Youth: An Awareness Campaign.

Nature of Seminar: Special Awareness Campaign.

Date: 03/08/2022(Wednesday)

Venue: Seminar Room, Jibantala Rokeya Mahavidyalaya.

Resource Person: Mr. Saugata Ghosh, Inspector-In-Charge(IC), Canning PS, South 24 Parganas, Baruipur Police District.

The Department of Political Science organized a special awareness campaign on Drug abuse in youth on 03/08/2022 at Seminar Room of Jibantala Rokeya Mahavidyalaya. TIC, Dr. Ramkrishna Mandal chaired the session and gave welcome address to the audience. He also introduced the Resource person with our students and faculty members. The campaign aimed to educate students and the community about the dangers of drug abuse and to promote strategies for prevention. The main speaker for the event was Mr. Saugata Ghosh, Inspector-in-Charge (IC) of Canning Police Station. Mr. Ghosh delivered an engaging and informative Power Point presentation that covered various critical aspects of drug abuse. Key Highlights of Mr. Ghosh's Presentation:

Sources of Drugs:

Mr. Ghosh began by identifying the various sources of drugs, including illegal drug trafficking, prescription drug misuse, and the growing trend of synthetic drugs. He emphasized the importance of understanding where these drugs come from to effectively combat their distribution and use.

Types of Drugs:

The presentation categorized drugs into different types, such as stimulants, depressants, opioids, hallucinogens, and inhalants. Mr. Ghosh explained the effects of each type on the human body and mind, providing a comprehensive overview of how they impact users.

Crime and Drug Abuse:

Highlighting the link between drug abuse and crime, Mr. Ghosh discussed how drug addiction can lead to criminal behavior, including theft, violence, and other illegal activities. He shared statistics and real-life cases to illustrate the severity of the issue.

Consequences on Youth Behavior:

The presentation addressed the profound impact of drug abuse on youth behavior, including academic decline, social withdrawal, and deteriorating mental health. Mr. Ghosh stressed the importance of early intervention and support for affected individuals.

Results and Strategies for Prevention:

Mr. Ghosh outlined effective strategies for preventing drug abuse, focusing on education, community involvement, and law enforcement. He emphasized the role of College/School, parents, and peer groups in creating a supportive environment that discourages drug use.

Practical Experiences:

Drawing from his extensive experience in law enforcement, Mr. Ghosh shared practical insights and anecdotes with the students. His real-life examples provided a vivid picture of the challenges and successes in the fight against drug abuse.

Interactive Session:

After the presentation, an interactive session was held where students and attendees could ask questions and discuss their concerns. Mr. Ghosh patiently addressed each query, providing valuable advice and encouraging open dialogue about the issues surrounding drug abuse.

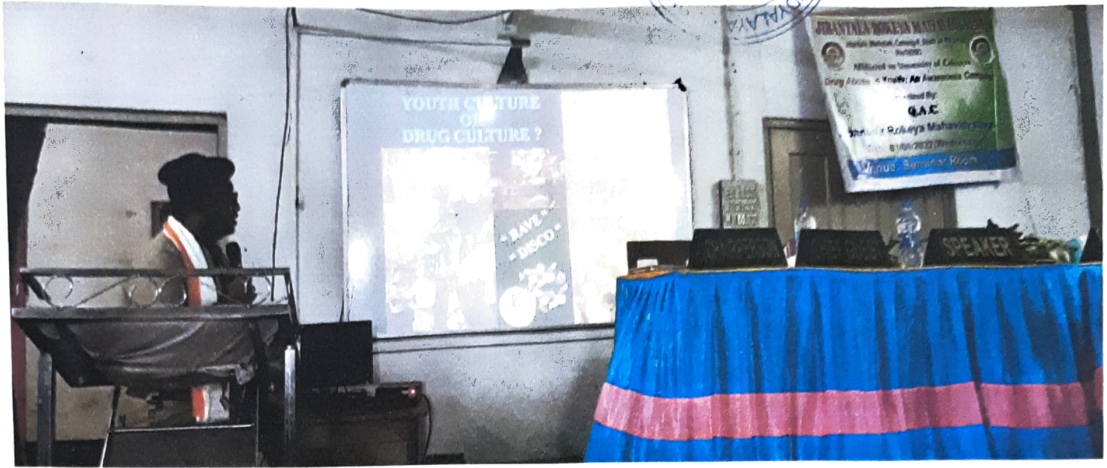

Conclusion:

The awareness campaign was highly successful, with a strong turnout from students and community members. Mr. Ghosh's presentation was well-received and appreciated for its clarity, depth, and practical relevance. The event not only increased awareness about the dangers of drug abuse but also motivated attendees to take proactive steps in preventing it within their communities. 76 participants attended the programme, including 60 Students, 12 faculty members and 4 non-teaching staff.
