Special Lecture On

National Digital Library of India (NDLI)

Activity Report

Department of Central Library in collaboration with IQAC of Jibantala Rokeya Mahavidyalaya organized a special lecture on “National Digital Library of India (NDLI)”.

Resource Person: Dr. Sarif Hasan, HOD & Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, Pingla Thana Mahavidyalaya

Date of Special Lecture: 04.07.2022

The special lecture on National Digital Library of India (NDLI) held at Seminar room, Jibantala Rokeya Mahavidyalaya from 1.30 pm. Dr. Ram Krishna Mondal, TIC of the college presided over the special lecture. The eminent speaker Dr. Sarif Hasan addressed the audience with an extremely insightful audio visual presentation on the above mentioned theme.

National Digital Library of India (NDLI) is a virtual repository of learning resources which is not just a repository with search/browse facilities but provides a host of services for the learner community. It is sponsored and mentored by Ministry of Education, Government of India, through its National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology (NMEICT). Filtered and federated searching is employed to facilitate focused searching so that learners can find the right resource with least effort and in minimum time. NDLI provides user group-specific services such as Examination Preparatory for School and College students and job aspirants. Services for Researchers and general learners are also provided. NDLI is designed to hold content of any language and provides interface support for 10 most widely used Indian languages. It is built to provide support for all academic levels including researchers and life-long learners, all disciplines, all popular forms of access devices and differently-abled learners. It is designed to enable people to learn and prepare from best practices from all over the world and to facilitate researchers to perform inter-linked exploration from multiple sources. It is developed, operated and maintained from Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur. Students of all departments participated actively in the interactive session with the speaker. The students found it very
